Dear Parents / Carers

READING VOLUNTEERS

As I'm sure you are aware, at Market Rasen Church of England Primary School, we place a large importance on regular reading practice. Reading to an adult and discussing books is an extremely important part of learning to read, both at home and at school, and we like to provide as many opportunities as possible for children to do this.

We would like to recruit some more parent, carer and grandparent volunteers to come into school and work with our children, hearing them read and talking about books. If you could spare an hour or so each week to do this, in the afternoons, we would love to hear from you. You may want to volunteer in your child's class or you might be happy working across the school in different year groups.

Volunteers will be required to undertake a DBS (criminal record check) and to fill in one or two additional forms for safeguarding reasons.

If you would like to offer some of your time, please follow the link to the Forms

I will be holding a reading information workshop on supporting children to read in school when I have received replies and will contact you to discuss the details nearer the time. It would be very beneficial if you could attend this to support volunteering with us.

Many thanks for your support. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me at school.

Kind regards

Nichola Allerston
Head of School
